Bachhuber support for Value-Engineered / Value-Analysis cost savings initiatives.

Our value analysis team can take a fresh look at your machining requirements. We visit your facility and follow machined components from receiving dock to final assembly with the objective to eliminate waste. We work with your engineering, manufacturing, and purchasing departments to review material substitution, process efficiency, duplication and component modularity. Bachhuber has helped our many customers realize total cost savings; send in your prints today.
